2. Workload and grade calculation:

10% Participation. Half of the participation grade is equivalent to attendance. At the beginning of every lecture and presentation, all students will sign their initials on the attendance sheet. The attendance sheet will be removed after the first 20 minutes of class. You may miss 3 lectures.

20% Homework. There will be a small homework assignment due almost every week. All homework must be word-processed; handwritten assignments will not be accepted or graded. Homework assignments will usually come from your textbook.

20% presentation. All students are required to present the explanation based on the concepts of linguistics distributed the previous week. You can find the information from the three textbooks recommended and internet.

25% Midterm. Tests are in-class, short answer/true or false/multiple choice. There will be a detailed review session before the test so you'll know exactly what is coming. The dates for both the midterm and the final are fixed at the beginning of the semester. Please schedule your other obligations around these dates, because THERE WILL BE NO MAKE-UP TESTS. Make up exams will not be given except in the case of extraordinary circumstances.

25% Final. See "Midterm."

3. Homework assignments description

- a. There will be ten assignments. However, eight assignments will contribute to your grade. Therefore, you are expected to do all the assignments. The three lowest score will be dropped. Through these assignments you will gain the understanding of introduction to linguistics. You are required to do the linguistic analysis of certain data.
